Product description :

The Royal Botania Bullet Lighting Collection combines modern design with exceptional durability, making it ideal for accentuating garden features and architectural details. Available in elegant zinc alloy and antique brass finishes, these outdoor lights offer both aesthetic appeal and long-lasting performance. The adjustable spotlight design allows precise illumination, while the energy-efficient LED technology provides a warm glow at 2700K with 500 lumens. Crafted from high-quality materials that resist corrosion and weather, the Bullet lights ensure reliable function and minimal maintenance in any outdoor setting.
